

Dear, West more News

Preventing global warming:mass transportation

Some people want to get rid of bussing at the Blind Brook Schools to save money.

There is another big issue that we all face, that issue is global warming. If we have a thousand cars coming to the schools, we'd cause much more pollution in the air and use more fuel. It's better for children to ride on the busses. We save gas and we pollute a lot less.

From,

Meredith Berger

Fourth Grade

BMP-RidgeStreetSchool